

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT, ORANGE COUNTY, FLORIDA

TAYLOR ALEXANDER HOEFT,

Case No. 2014-DR-3487-O

Petitioner,

v.

JADE N. COOK, et al.,

Respondents.

ORDER GRANTING COOK'S VERIFIED MOTION FOR RETURN OF CHILD

Respondent, Jade N. Cook's, verified motion for return of child was heard on October 19, 2016. After reviewing the verified motion, the court finds as follows:

A. Cook is the mother of the child, Avani Gaia Wood, born December 27, 2010, and co-respondent, Matthew C. Wood, is the legal father of the child.

B. This court has personal jurisdiction of petitioner, Taylor Alexander Hoeft, respondents, and the child.

C. Florida is the home state of the child as of the date of the filing of this action by petitioner and continuing thereafter. See: Sec. 61.503(7), Fla. Stat.

D. Based on Cook's verified motion, the child is presently in Austin, Texas in the custody of Hoeft and his mother, Deborah Hoeft.

E. Wood has not consented to the removal of the child from Florida or to her relocation in Texas.

F. Cook has been denied access to the child by Hoeft and his mother, Deborah Hoeft.

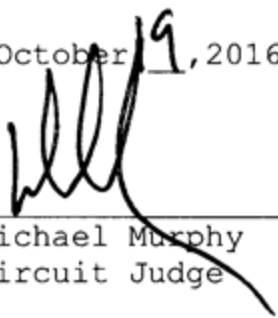

Based on the foregoing findings

IT IS ADJUDGED THAT:

1. Cook's verified motion for return of child is granted.
2. Petitioner, Taylor Alexander Hoeft, is hereby ordered to return the child, Avani Gaia Wood, to Orange County, Florida instanter.

3. Each and every sheriffs of the State of Florida are authorized to enforce this order against petitioner, Taylor Alexander Hoeft, if found within the State of Florida.

ORDERED at Orlando, Florida on October 19, 2016.

Michael Murphy
Circuit Judge

* the court will not set A hearing on this matter unless the Petitioner can establish a legal right to the child as paternity of the child was previously established on Dec 30, 2010 under FlaStat. 742.10(4) (w)
